

Wisconsin Freshmen State Representatives

Sylvia Ortiz-Velez (D-Milwaukee)

8th Assembly District

Velez won the general election with 79% of the vote against Angel Sanchez to fill the seat left open by Dem Rep. JoCasta Zamarripa who did not seek reelection. Ortiz-Velez is a member of the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors, representing District 12. Born on Milwaukee's South Side, she is a former small business operator and community volunteer. She earned a Political Science degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Dora Drake (D-Madison)

11th Assembly District

Drake won the general election with 84.7% of the vote against Orlando Owens to fill the seat left open by Dem Rep. Jason Fields who did not seek reelection. Drake currently works as a Member Service Coordinator at the Center for Self Sufficiency where she provides re-entry services to support those who are re-entering society. She earned a Bachelor's in Social Welfare and Justice from the Marquette University.

Sara Rodriguez (D-Brookfield)

13th Assembly District

Rodriguez is leading in a close race against incumbent GOP Rep. Rob Hutton. Rodriguez is a registered nurse and an experienced healthcare executive who has worked in a variety of leadership roles for over 20 years including recently founding a healthcare consulting firm. She was the Vice President of Population Health and Integrated Care Management at a local health system and has had various leadership positions with public health departments at the local, state and federal level, serving as an Epidemic Intelligence Service Officer with the CDC.

Supreme Moore Omokunde (D-Milwaukee)

17th Assembly District

Omokunde won the general election with 86% of the vote against Abie Eisenbach to fill the seat left open by former Dem Rep. David Crowley who resigned after being sworn in as Milwaukee County Executive in May. Moore Omokunde was first elected to the Milwaukee County Board of Supervisors in 2015, and re-elected in 2016 and 2018. Supervisor Moore Omokunde is Chair of the Health and Human Needs Committee and a member of the budget-setting Finance and Audit Committee. He also serves on the Milwaukee Public Museum Board of Directors and on the Milwaukee County Human Rights Commission. Prior to joining the Milwaukee County Board, he served as the community organizer for the Sherman Park Community Association where he worked with block clubs, established the Friends of Sherman Park group and helped to formulate a Neighborhood Improvement District.

Deb Andraca (D-Whitefish Bay)

23rd Assembly District

Andraca won the general election with 51.6% defeating GOP incumbent Rep. Jim Ott. After graduating from Syracuse University she worked for the Solar Energy Industries Association while earning her master's degree in political management at George Washington University. Andraca was a press secretary on a Congressional re-election campaign, a communications director and lobbyist at the Environmental Law and Policy Center of the Midwest, and a Vice President at FleishmanHillard Public Relations. Andraca is a licensed teacher.

Clint Moses (R-Menomonie)

29th Assembly District

Moses won the general election with 60.2% of the vote against John Calabrese to fill the seat left open by GOP Rep. Rob Stafsholt who ran and won in the 10th Senate District. Moses lives on a small farm where they raise sheep and cattle in the Menomonie Township. In 2003 he opened Red Cedar Chiropractic with his wife, Dr. Nora Moses. He holds a Psychology BA, Human Biology BS, and Doctor of Chiropractic. Moses has served on the Tall Oaks Council for the Boy Scouts of America, Colfax Health & Rehabilitation board, Rotary Club of Menomonie member and Past President, Community Foundation of Dunn County member, past grants chair, board president, and current school board member for the School District of the Menomonie Area. He is running to fill the seat left open by current Rep. Rob Stafsholt who is on the ballot for the 10th Senate District.

Calvin Callahan (R-Tomahawk)

35th Assembly District

Callahan won the general election with 65.3% of the vote against Tyler Ruprecht to fill the seat left open by GOP Rep. Mary Felzkowski who ran and won in the 12th Senate District. Callahan holds a Bachelors of Business Administration with a Minor Marketing and is currently a Lincoln County Supervisor, Owner of Callahan Wholesale, Chairman of the Republican Party of Lincoln County, and Business Manager for family owned B&T Rentals. Callahan has also served as the Tomahawk Future Business Leaders of America's Chief Communications Officer and worked with organizations such as Tomahawk Extended Area Partners in Education to provide educational opportunities to our youth and work with the school districts.

Alex Dallman (R-Green Lake)

41st Assembly District

Dallman won the general election with 60.6% of the vote against Nate Zimdars to fill the seat left open by GOP Rep. Joan Ballweg who ran and won in the 14th Senate District. Dallman is an Outreach Representative, with a BS in Political Science and American Government. Dallman is also currently a Licensed Basketball Official, a member of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association, and a Green Lake County Election Inspector. Previously, he was a Constituent Services Representative and has held positions with the Office of Congressman Glenn Grothman including Deputy Campaign Manager, and Executive Assistant.

Sue Conley (D-Janesville)

44th Assembly District

Conley won the general election with 60.3% of the vote against DuWayne Severson Conley to fill the seat left open by current Rep. Deb Kolste who did not seek reelection. Conley has served her community leading in the nonprofit sector as a volunteer and board member for more than 30 years. She served as executive director, first at the YWCA of Rock County and later at the Community Foundation of Southern Wisconsin. She is currently serving her second term on the Janesville City Council as Council President.

Samba Baldeh (D-Madison)

48th Assembly District

Baldeh won the general election with 79.7% of the vote against Samuel Anderson to fill the seat left open by Dem Rep. Melissa Sargent who ran and won in the 16th Senate District. Baldeh is an IT Project Manager at American Family Insurance Company where he has been employed for 20 years. He has been an Alder on the Madison Common Council for three terms and served as Council President in his second term. In 2018 he was awarded the Midge Miller Award for Outstanding elected official. In addition to the committees he serves on at the city council, he is a member of the University of Wisconsin - Madison Community Advisory Council and the Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI) Mandela Washington Fellowship Advisory Committee.

Racheael Cabral Guevara (R-Fox Crossing)

55th Assembly District

Guervara won the general election with 54.9% of the vote against Daniel Schierl to fill the seat left open by current Rep. Mike Rohrkaste who did not seek reelection. Guevara is a board-certified Family Nurse Practitioner and a licensed Advanced Practice Nurse Prescriber who holds a Masters of Nursing, Bachelor's of Science in Nursing, and Bachelor's of Science in Biology and Chemistry. She opened NPHS – Nurse Practitioner Health Services LLC in Appleton which is a cash based clinic which does not take insurance, posts all prices online and offers housecall services. She currently teaches at the University of Wisconsin – Oshkosh within the College of

Lee Snodgrass (D-Appleton)

57th Assembly District

Snodgrass won the general election with 56.5% of the vote against Eric Beach Snodgrass to fill the seat left open by current Rep. Amanda Stuck who ran and lost her bid in the 8th Congressional District. Snodgrass is Communications Director for the Girl Scouts of the Northwestern Great Lakes. She serves as the 2nd Vice Chair for the Democratic Party of Wisconsin. Snodgrass ran unsuccessfully as a 2018 State Senate candidate in the 19th against Senate President, Roger Roth.

Donna Rozar (R-Marshfield)

69th Assembly District

Rozar won the general election with 65.9% of the vote against Brian Giles to fill the seat to left open by current Rep. Bob Kulp who did not seek reelection. Rozar is a medical-surgical RN in the cardiac unit and previously has been an emergency room RN, a nurse practitioner, and nurse educator. Rozar has served as a Wood County Board Supervisor since 2000 and is the current chair of the Health and Human Services Committee.

David Armstrong (R-Rice Lake)

75th Assembly District

Armstrong won the general election with 62.4% of the vote against John Ellenson to fill the seat left open by current Rep. Romaine Quinn who did not seek reelection. Armstrong has been Executive Director of the Barron County Economic Development Corporation since 2013. Armstrong is currently President of the Rice Lake Cable Commission, a member of the Rice Lake Utility Commission and Rice Lake Tourism Commission, Rice Lake Chamber of Commerce board member, past President and current member of the Law Enforcement Foundation of Barron County and volunteer mentor at Rice Lake High school. He previously served two-terms on the Rice Lake City Council.

Francesca Hong (D-Madison)

76th Assembly District

Hong won the general election with 88.2% of the vote against Patrick Hull to fill the seat left open by current Rep. Chris Taylor who did not seek reelection. Hong is a professional chef and owner of Morris Ramen. Hong founded the Culinary Ladies Collective (CLC) in 2016 and serves as the president of the Board of Directors.

Kristina Shelton (D-Green Bay)

90th Assembly District

Shelton won the general election with 60.2% of the vote against Drew Kirsteatter. She advanced from the Democratic primary with 78.8% of the vote defeating current Rep. Staush Gruszynski. Shelton holds a Master of Science in Health Promotion Management and is Program Director at the YWCA Greater Green Bay. She managed a national grants program, facilitated an urban wellness coalition, and initiated and facilitated an organization-wide diversity leadership team. Shelton sits on the Green Bay Area Public School Board. She was previously Northeast Regional Coordinator for the Women's March Wisconsin.